The right direction to your career!

The best part about this coaching institute is that they are concerned about each and every student getting a good career. They do not have a profit making attitude. They will devotedly put in efforts to understand the student's area of interests and their dormant and evident talents/skills. After their analysis they will guide the students for suitable colleges or competitive exams. Also they will suggest good back-up plans which will be very profiting for the students. Mathematics is taught in a very creative way by Mr. Achal sir. Even the ones who fear maths can be doing great at it towards the end of the programme. One should go and experience Smarg.

Smarg Education is a great institute for anyone preparing for management or master's entrances. Unlike other coaching centres, they provide personalised and specific mentorship and support beginning from exam preparation to interview preparation. They alter their teaching practices according to the needs of the students and provide specific support keeping the students' aptitude, experience and background in mind. With the support of everyone at Smarg Education, especially Achal Sir, I was able to clear XAT and convert my XLRI, JSR call.

In Smarg it's more than just preparing for an entrance exam, it's about understanding concepts, it's origination and it's current framework.

You will be provided with the required material and guidance needed. There are classes conducted by different teachers for different subjects included in the entrance exam.

The best part is the preparation provided for interviews- you get a good idea on how interviews are conducted at TISS, all the more you will get an in-depth understanding of the course you have opted for.

At the end of the day one's own preparation is what matters, but Smarg can give you the right path and direction.

Smarg Education really makes all the efforts to give personal attention to everyone alongside with proper guidance one is able to also achieve their goals. One very important quality that Smarg has which other institutes don't is that they are with you till you don't get into your dream college and don't charge anything extra for it. With all their sincere efforts I was able to get into TISS Hyderabad and have started with my new journey.

Smarg overall helped me to secure good marks and thereby getting selection in good institute. The best thing about them is their faculty is always available. You can always approach them. Batch based whatsapp group are also available which help you to post query and get help from your own batch mates.

With the help of mock exams you prepare better and mock review sessions help you to understand your mistakes.

You can sit and study in center later or before class. You can study together as a batch or individually.

The way teachers approach problems here is unique, instead of force fitting answers or making you learn stuff they try to give you a logical approach which learn you to retain it for longer.

I'm grateful for Smarg for helping me throughout my journey.

GREAT FACULTY. UNIQUE TEACHING METHODOLOGY. Smarg just changed the way I looked at numbers. Being weak at maths was a challenge for me but with individual attention and practical approach of solving questions, they eased practicing maths for me! Apart from that, they not just focus on clearing entrance exams but also on learning, and gaining a lot of knowledge to shape the personality of a student. Through their regular mentoring and motivational sessions, one is able to figure out the right career options. And lastly they teach you how to become a Leader!

I'm really thankful to Smarg education for making the process of learning enjoyable!

Smarg Education is one of the best institutes for CAT preparation. They don't believe in giving you tricks and formulas for each question, they rather focus on building your concepts based on reasoning. They are not only teaching you for CAT but they are preparing you for life. The knowledge and wisdom I have acquired here is priceless.

One of the best institutes for CAT/XAT preparation in Delhi/NCR, by virtue of their teaching methodology. The idea isn't on tricks and short cuts rather making students develop the aptitude based on commonsensical reasoning. Completely a formula less way of teaching.
